

Description

ZEBBUG â€“ Few meters away from a small chapel, and right in the village core comes this massive corner townhouse full of traditional character, and Maltese charms with an interconnected garage. This property can be ideal as a beautiful home for a big family, can also be easily converted into two large apartments, or demolished for development. The property avails itself to a massive garden with other open spaces adjacent to it. Definitely a MUST SEE as it has huge potential both as a site, and as a beautiful residence.
